As members of the senior class began to realize that this was the LAST year, many of them began to relate memories of the past which had endured through the years.

Pam Smith vividly recalled her anger and dismay as she had to perform her role, "Little Red Ridin' Hood," in a costume which was stained as the result of a playground incident involving Darren Southerland. As she recalls it, he actually pushed her off the merry-go-round and into the mud.

Choosing to be nameless, three boys reminded each other of an unwise decision that they made to skip band fourth hour and of the resulting activity which Mr. Krey seemed to enjoy much more than they did.

Evidently Lisa Landrum's birthday party where personal clothing was frozen in the deep freeze and Heather decided she wanted to ride the St. Bernard made a deep impression, too.

At least one senior will always remember the hectic hour spent trying to get the class, the photographers, Mrs. Landrum, and Mrs. Werhan together to make the group picture one extremely chilly day.

Another nameless group is the members of Mrs. Conover's class who enjoyed having spit ball fights without her knowledge.

James Brown particularly remembers having to write 500 times about hiding some of Lesa Jennings' medicine in Mrs. Ballard's class. It really bothers him now since he has found out that he had simply returned it to her and forgotten about it.

Dipping even farther back in the memory bag, Chuck got a grin out of remembering a near paddling in Mrs. Kirkpatrick's 4th grade when she swung as he moved out of the way, and she hit the wall.

Another time members of the class gathered for play as plumbers at John Morrow's house. Lisa D., Gary, Mike, and John experimented to find out if you could flush a pop bottle. You can't.

Memories also recalled that "Fitz" was not a very popular name with Jerry during the early grade school days. In fact, if you wanted a fast race for safety, that was about all you had to say.

Other grade school highlights included staying in trouble with Mrs. Kirkpatrick for talking all of the time and playing dodgeball with Mr. Conover.

Mrs. Jackson's third grade figured big in the memories of several. There was a play which many of them enjoyed and they also recalled with excitement the experiences of having their own supplies store. This included a trip to the bank to borrow money.

No one is sure who has the clearest recollection but Chuck and Mindy both remember when he hit her in the face in the first grade.

Michael Bishop clearly remembers playing football in the 8th and 9th grade game against Apache. He sacked the quarterback three times and it was the last game that he shared with Chad and Chuck. All three remember it as a "killer game."

Lisa Landrum definitely did not need to attend a self-defense class. In the 6th grade she stabbed John Morrow with a compass when he was "pestering her."

Gary Dennis was the star of the lunchroom in the first grade because he was willing to eat all of the English peas that no one else wanted.

Other memories included Cindy Connerly and Lisa Dorma;n charging into Mr. Steele's class late and slamming the door open and closed and something about some boys burning trash cans in Ag.

Jonna Teel was still upset because when she attended Rush for four days in the 4th grade, she was criticized for the way she pronounced "Comanche" and the fact everyone thought her name sounded like a "boy's name."

Teresa Forsythe fondly remembers that with her move to Rush Springs she could find people that she could honestly call "friends."

JoAnn Davis and Mary Rosenbaum and all the senior members of the team still cherish the fact that in the 1982-83 Grady County Basketball tournament, THEY BEAT AM-PO!!

Those with long memories still hearken back to the fourth grade where they witnessed a wedding ceremony between John Morrow and Angel Todd by the kindergarten building.

Dewain Grossnicklaus and his mother made the memory chart for the sixth grade by giving little heart shaped pillows stitched with their names which she made. The kids exchanged them with their sweethearts, too.

Some hinted that romance was in the air before the sixth grade because there was quite a bit of traffic in Mrs. Laing's class into the coat closet for some reason.

Another version of the Chuck and Mindy punch out in the first grade says that it was the result of her calling him "short" and that Mr. Conover put a proper "ending" to the whole affair.

Members also recalled that in the eighth grade a strong dedication to the Dallas Cowboys made them select as their class colors, blue and silver.

One mischievous incident involved Chad, Terry, Max, Andy, Jeff, Michael P., Earl N. and a can of Skoal. It started out as a way of celebrating the end of grade school but resulted in three licks each.

In the 8th grade there was a memory regarding Chad and Dewain and Mrs. Lucas and a pencil but no one is telling any more than that.

Most of Mrs. Ballard's sixth grade math girls remember getting spanked for not having their homework done while Angel escaped the experience.

In the third grade M.B., P.S., and A.T. had to find out the hard way that swinging from the bathroom stalls was not an approved exercise.

While she was in middle school in the old building, Heather's gift for gab nearly caused Coach Griggs to throw her from the window on the second floor. At least, he threatened to if she talked again.

In Mrs. Pelley's 4th grade many kids found pleasure in tipping over their chairs so they would have to stand up.

Andy Farmer was the only one to remain in his seat and not get in trouble in Mrs. Parrish's second grade when the urge hit the rest of the class to take off their shoes and skate around the room on the hardwood floor in their socks.

All the girls remember what a bundle of nerves they were on eighth grade graduation night when they had to cope with the problem of getting up on stage and singing as well as the hassle later on when they were trying to get their clothes changed to go skating and the boys came running by the doors. Wonder if they will be that nervous in '85?

John Morrow and J. D. Walker gained fame as the Lone Hall sitters in Mrs. Parrish's class when she sent them into the hall for sharing candy during a film and it was over two hours before Mr. Conover finally took care of them.

Those who participated stated that you only need to write the words — Mr. Steele's biology class!!

Several remember the persuasive manner Lisa D. had when she threw Terry McAdoo against the wall in kindergarten and told him he would be her boyfriend.

In Mrs. Pelley's class Heather earned her own desk name plate titled "Pig Pen."

Members of the 6th and 7th grade football team had reason to celebrate because they were UNDEFEATED!

The girls in Mrs. Crabb's math class learned to their delight that they could delay class by getting her to discuss "the birds and the bees."

Lisa Landrum had a "modeling experience" in Mrs. Parrish's class as a result of getting soaked in the rain while waiting for the bus. When she arrived at school, Mrs. Parrish had her to change into an old dress and put her clothes on the radiator to dry.

J.D. took the punishment for the entire class when they made the mistake of laughing when Jerry F. had trouble spelling Washington.

In the 2nd and 3rd grades the big game for the boys was to play yankees and rebels. Jeff always wanted to be a rebel.

All the flags started missing in the 7th grade. Memory experts say that people should check with Chad about this.

In the first grade J.D. quickly learned that a friend like Mike Bishop can come in very handy when Darren started chasing him with a brick.

Jeff Green had many fond memories of different games which they played in grade school.

In refecting upon her best memory of Rush Springs' school days, new student Carrie Segura, voiced a feeling that will probably accompany each class member as they grduate. She said, "My most memorable moment about school really was my first day. It was the first time that I had ever gone to school with any kids other than the ones I'd grown up with, and I was scared to death! Thanks to a bunch of friendly students, especially seniors, I began to make friends quickly. I now feel as though I have been here all my life, and I've made some lasting, lifelong friendships which I wouldn't trade for anything."

"Times of Your Life"

Good morning yesterday,
You wake up and time has slipped away
And suddenly it's hard to find
The memories you left behind. Remember,
Do you remember the laughter and the tears
The shadows of misty yesteryears?
The good times and the bad you've seen
And all the others in between. Remember,
Do you remember the times of you life?
Reach back for the good and the sorrow
Put them away in your mind
For memories are time you borrow
To spend when you get to tomorrow
Here comes the setting sun
The seasons are passing one by one
So gather moments while you may
Collect the dreams you dream today.
Remember,
Will you remember the times of your life?

JUNIOR SENIOR BANQUET

Members of the 1985 graduating class began to realize what being a senior meant as they hosted the 1984 class to the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom April 21, 1984. The two classes enjoyed a banquet held in the Pool Room at the Best Western Motel at Chickasha and a prom in the USAO Ballroom.

Junior class president, John Morrow, formally opened the banquet and Darren Southerland led those present in an opening prayer. After John's welcome, Lesa Jennings and he presented to the seniors their original poem following the seniors' theme, "The Best of Times."

Tonya Caywood, senior class president, responded to the welcome and expressed their appreciation for all the juniors had done. Junior class officers, Mindy Bailey, Deena Brady, and Lisa Landrum, forecast the future of the seniors. A musical rendition of "Times of Your Life" was dedicated to the seniors by Deena, Gary McClain, J. D. Walker, and Lesa. They were accompanied on the piano by Mindy and on the guitar by John.

Senior class officers, Marty Duke, Sonya Hill, and Anita Krey, then responded by reading their last will and testament in which they bequeathed things that the juniors weren't even aware that they possessed.

After a delicious meal that included roast beef, fried chicken, mashed potatoes, gravy, green beans, corn, rolls, and a variety of salads, John offered the closing remarks and James Kemp closed the banquet with a prayer.

After the banquet the prom sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. John Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crow, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Deon Duke, Mr. and Mrs. James Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, and Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Brady was highlighted with a music and light show complete with bubbles and fog presented by Martin Reding of Chickasha.

Prom King Marty and Queen Tonya led a spotlight dance to the theme song, "Times of Your Life," after having been crowned by Mindy and John. Banquet pictures were made by Noel King's Portrait Studio.

LOOKING BACK . . .

FACING GRADUATION

Faces of old, faces of new.
People we know, people we knew.

Growing together, then growing apart,
Always an ending, now a new start.

When graduatiion comes, we all grow nearer.
All of our friends seem so much dearer.

And as we say our final "goodbye,"
One last embrace, just one last cry.
A "keep in touch" and a "promise I will,"
A "remember when" and a "better yet still."

A place in my heart, you will always stay.
This is what's said as we go on our way.

— Teresa Forsythe

As the school year progressed, elementary students participated in many activities. One of them, the Christmas program, really involved a lot of students and teachers in its production. Another project, the annual Halloween fun, was a lot of fun, too. Throughout the grade school section are pictures of these activities.

ELEMENTARY GIFTED & TALENTED

After being chosen through standrdized tests, members of the Elementary Gifted and Talented group were divided into groups undertaking different learning projects.

Those in the fourth and fifth grades enjoyed a variety of activities. Their classroom projects have involved studies in Spanish, computers, creative thinking and writing skills, research projects and techniques in problem-solving. This group was sponsored by Mrs. Price.

Members of the second and third grades worked with computers, games that stimulate imagination and other projects that were similar to the projects of the fourth and fifth graders. Mrs. Laing conducted these activities.

Sponsored by Mrs. Davis, the first and second graders have completed a study of the human body, the skeletal system and planned a field trip to the Grady Memorial Hospital. Efforts at creative writing and computer studies were also included.

All of the gifted and talented students have attended a play at Cameron entitled, "The Lion, The Witch, and The Wardrobe," and taken a tour of the museums of Fort Sill.

Additional pictures on this page were made when Mrs. Price's group met to "talk" Spanish with the high school class.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

To be eligible for membership in the National Honor Society, a student must be at least a sophomore, maintain a 3.4 average with no "C's", be of good character, an upstanding citizen, and maintain these outstanding qualities through the school year. The students who hve met these qualifications for this year are: Back Row: David Ballard, Angel Todd, Renee Krey, Deena Brady, Gena Caveny, Lisa Ferguson, Jerri McClenny, Renea Jackson. Middle Row: Sponsor, Chris Cloud, Mindy Bailey, David Williams, John Morrow, Jeff Haynes, Tommy Foster, Chris Filippo, Kimberly Baker, Ann Mileur. Front: Chris Hargus, Lori Savage, Tonia Bryant, Robbie Pelley, Sonya Sanders, John David Laing, Jamie Carper, and Tina Garrett.

OKLAHOMA HONOR SOCIETY

To be eligible for membership in the Oklahoma Honor Society, a student must maintain high enough scholarship standards to rank in the top 10% of the student body for the previous semester. Members of the Society are: Back Row: Angel Todd, Renee Krey, Deena Brady, Jennifer Scott, Linda Latham, Sonya Sanders, David Ballard. Middle Row: Ann Mileur, David Williams, John Morrow, Jeff Haynes, Chris Filippo, Kimberly Baker, Chris Cloud, Sponsor. # HIGH SCHOOL GIFTED & TALENTED

The Rush Springs High School Gifted and Talented class has eleven participants this year chosen on the basis of nationally standardized tests. During the first semester they attended a speech and debate seminar at Cameron University where they observed award winning performances by high school and college speech and debate students. They also took part in a mini-course in oil painting on canvas in the hopes of awakening some as yet unrecognized artistic talent.

The course included video-tape instruction by nationally famous artist, Bill Alexander, plus some classroom instruction and hands on experience with their first oil paintings.

Individual students have been using CAI (Computer Aided Instruction) to extend and supplement their education in areas such as physical science, physics, biology, history, geography, English, grammar, music, geology, astronomy, and library science. During the second semester they hope to have short courses in speed reading and positive attitude development. They also hope to include computer instruction in the use of spreadsheets and word processors.

A YEAR WITH STUDENT COUNCIL

As the 1984-85 school year began, the officers and their sponsor were working hard on plans for the year. Their first step toward improving the student council was the rewriting of the constitution. Then at the first meeting, the officers explained the new rules and how they would be carried out. Following discussion of the new constitution and rules, the yearly activities were planned.

In their planning, student council members tried to find ways to serve both the school and the community and ways in which they could help to improve the school. One phase of their activities included making daily announcements and changing the marquee with weekly events and happenings in order to keep everyone informed. Another one of their projects was to bake cookies to distribute to the teachers' lounges in order to help keep their morale up.

By the time they had these plans well underway, it was time for the yearly state student council convention. All four officers and Miss Cooper went to Stillwater where for three days they attended the convention at Stillwater High School. They joined with students from all over Oklahoma to participate in learning sessions concerning how to better school systems and help to promote learning. After three days of hearing speakers and seeing students with many different ideas, they all returned with a better outlook and appreciation of their own school.

After the convention they quickly began work on the "Blood Drive for Ziggy." As sponsors of the blood drive, they were given names of everyone in Rush Springs to call and get volunteers to donate blood. On November 11 Stuco members worked throughout the day handing out pamphlets, taking information, giving their own blood, and being "Mr. Ziggy." Overall they were very pleased with the results of this community service project.

There wasn't any time for the busy student council members to slow down because they had to work at various money raising projects to finance some of their other projects. One of these was the celebration of high school basketball homecoming held in December. They carried out a Christmas theme by decorating the gym with bows and ornaments. They were assisted by Mrs. Cloud and the cheerleaders. Another event in December was to serve as guides and hosts to visitors who attended the Open House Activities. Some members served refreshments while others greeted guests and tried to acquaint them with the activities of a typical school day.

Also during December, Stuco members conducted food and present drives in order to get things to donate to the needy families of the community. Finally, they added to the school's Christmas spirit and brightened the lobby by placing a tree in the lobby and beautifully decorating it.

After all this hard work, on December 22 when school was dismissed for Christmas break, all the members loaded up in Vernon Bailey's van and trucked on down to El Palacio. After a big feast of Mexican food, everyone zipped over to Ward Mall for some last minute Christmas shopping.

Naturally, when they returned to school after their break, they had to face semester tests and all of the other academic activities. Following this, they scheduled Junior High Basketball Homecoming. The first date was cancelled by bad weather, but finally they were able to hold the ceremony on Feb. 11. A Valentine's Day theme was carried out against a backdrop made by student council members which was a rainbow surrounded by hearts.

For the rest of the year Stuco members continued to do their best to meet the needs of the school and to be of community service. Meetings were held once or twice a month in order to keep up with school functions. As a finale, Stuco sponsored an annual signing party and once more brought to close a successful year.

The Creative Writing class publishes a monthly paper for the Rush Springs students covering the news in all twelve grades. Students do all the collecting, typing, and arranging of the paper. Creative writing as well as news writing is encouraged in class assignments. Some of the students do the artwork and lettering while others type and arrange the pages. We are proud of each edition and especially of our editor, Carrie Segura, and photographer, Mindy Bailey.

FCA Officers: Pres., Lisa Landrum; Vice Pres., Tommy Foster; Sec., Lesa Jennings; Reporter, Deena Brady

"The purpose of the FCA, founded in 1947, was to present to athletes and coaches, and all whom they influence, the challenge and adventure of receiving Jesus Christ as savior and Lord, serving him in their relationships and in the fellowship of the church." The local organization founded in 1981 has sought to preserve that purpose. "Huddles" are held biweekly, when possible in various members' homes.

HIGH SCHOOL CHEERLEADERS

In April, girls were selected to serve as cheerleaders for the Redskin teams on the following basis: 40% Screening (cheerleading ability) 30% Teacher evaluation 30% popular vote.

Immediately after the election the responsibility of cheerleading began for the girls. They began practicing in May to prepare for cheerleading camp in June. In addition to having to have the necessary practice sessions the girls were responsible for providing their own uniforms and for camp fees and costs which amounted to approximately $200-$250 per girl.

During the summer of '84 the cheerleaders attended a National Cheerleaders Association "Superstar Spirit Camp" for four days at Eufaula. The girls gave an outstanding performance at each evaluation and came home with three superior and one excellent ribbon. They also won the "Spirit Stick" in Monday evening's evaluation.

During school each squad was responsible for providing pep rallies, spirit boosting signs, and doing everything possible to let the teams know that the student body supports them. All this in addition to faithfully leading spectators in cheering teams toward victory.

The Middle School Gifted and Talented program, acting under guidelines set up by the State Department of all education, has seven students enrolled this year. In order for students to qualify, they must agree to the requirements of the program.

The Rush Springs Talented Program involves extra effort on the part of the student. Each student must be willing to expend this extra effort. All classwork missed while attending the session must be made up. The class began this school year with a study of human anatomy with particular emphasis on skeletal make-up.

A field trip was also made to Cameron University to attend a workshop on debate and public speaking. This was an excellent opportunity for the students to watch demonstrations of public speaking, learn how to prepare a speech, and to "think" while speaking. Particular emphasis was placed on the necessity of a good self-concept and a positive attitude. The next project was to write a script for a television newscast. The script included international, regional, state and local news. Weather, sports, movie reviews and commercials made this script complete and ready to be videotaped.

The Rush Springs Talented Program gives students the opportunity to be stimulated and challenged in a variety of ways not normally included in the regular classroom.

OF AMERICA

The Rush Springs Chapter of Future Farmers of America started off the year by electing their officers. These new officers served the 1984-85 school terms. They are President, Mike Bishop; Vice President, David Ballard; Secretary, Brian Phipps; Treasurer, Dewain Grossnicklaus; Reporter, Mike Phipps; Sentinel, Andy Farmer; Parliamentarian, Tim Servati. The chapter selection for Sweetheart is Chris Hagus. Mr. Heilman and Mr. Attaway are advisors of the chapter.

The chapter held its annual sausage sale during the latter part of October. Skip Fitzgerald, a junior, was the top salesperson. He sold 232 sticks, beating the former record of 208 held by David Kuntz for two years. The chapter had five other people to sell over one hundred stocks. They were Andy Farmer, Jeff Wright, Mike Bishop, James Pointer and Timmy Rathbun.

Another activity of the chapter was to participate in the Healthy Baby Contest. The baby which we supported was Ashlie Maxwell.

The Rush Springs chapter started building their projects for their annual slave sale in November. They were anticipating having a very good sale.

During the 1984 show season the chapter participated in several livestock shows and did well. At the time of this writing plans are being made to make all the spring shows and win as many ribbons as possible.

As usual the chapter plans to conclude its activities with the F.V.A. Banquet and hopes to do well this year and represent Rush Springs with honor.

THIS YEAR IN FHA

Our 1984-85 school year started out great. The chapter began early making plans for what was sure to be a super year.

In September, the officers were installed and all the new members actively participated in initiation week. Also, our national convention delegates, Lesa Jennings, Heather Davis, and Mrs. Brantley, presented a slide show on their journey and experiences in Chicago.

"Nutrition" was the word in October with FHA chapters concentrating on their state project, "The Student Body." A survey on eating habits was taken in the high school and a breakfast break was provided. FHA members participated in selling Tom Watt again this year. The chapter members worked hard and earned a nice profit to use for the year's projects.

November's main concern was the March of Dimes and Birth Defects. At the November meeting the members were shown filmstrips and given an opportunity to learn more about the March of Dimes and their role in Birth Defects. To raise money for this organization, the Chapter sponsored a healthy baby contest. As a result, $500 was raised to contribute to this effort.

December was the time for the Foster Children's Fund. Each member brought a gift to give to needy children. By the time all of the members had shown their Chirstmas spirit, the chapter had three boxes of gifts and a $300 check to donate to the fund. Also, the third annual Christmas Tea was held and members enjoyed having over 100 guests attend.

In January, the members learned about missing children. A program was presented during the January meeting and the chapter worked with the elementary and middle school students by showing a program called, "Danger Stranger."

FHA Hero week was celebrated in February. During this week, the chapter honored the faculty. Also, a Sweetheart Banquet was held for the members.

The activities for March included a program on candymaking and attending the State Convention at the Myriad in Oklahoma City.

In April, a Member-Parent Banquet and Awards night was held and the members saw a demonstration on a knitting machine.

Finally, in May, the Chapter honored its senior members, planned an end of the Year Trip to "Molly Murphy's" and evaluated what really had been a super year.

CVET

CVET is the Coordinated Vocational Education Training program as initiated by the state department of Education. The Rush Springs program's main emphasis is on construction. They get experience in most areas of construction including plumbing, electricity, concrete work, surveying, general maintenance, cabinet making, and all areas of carpentry necessary to complete a house or building.

Most of the work they do is on the job training for the school or the general public. This year included a job of deep personal pride and satisfaction for the class as they have completed construction on their new CVET Building.

THE SPANISH CLUB "LO MEJOR"

Getting ready to serve refreshments.

This year over twenty students were brave enough to try to learn a second language, Spanish. They organized into a club "Lo Mejor" (the best) and did their best "hablar espanol." During December they met with the gifted and talented group from grade school that was studying Spanish and had a fiesta. During the second semester they had a pot luck Spanish comida. Several members even went so far as to purchase shirts with the club name or sayings such as Besame, Yo hablo espanol on them. Their officers were: President, Sonya Sanders; Vice-President, Rhonda Maresh; Secretary-Treasurer, Janet Garrett; Reporter, Tina Garrett.

1984 ALL DISTRICT 6-A

JOHN MORROW, CHAD HARGUS, AND J. D. WALKER

The Redskins had a good season with a 5-5 record which included winning three out of their last four games. Another highlight of the season was being able to give Coach Tunnell his 200th win when they defeated Comanche 42-21. If it had not been for key injuries to Gary McClain, John Morrow, and Gary Hayes, their record might have been even better.

John Morrow, Chad Hargus, and J. D. Walker were named to the 6-A All District team which is selected by the coaches from the district. Those receiving honorable mention were Jim Turner, Gary McClain, Gary Dennis, Robbie Ford, Chuck Caveny and Jerry Fitzpatrick.

The 1984-85 Redskins have made strides that hopefully will enable them to make 1986 a banner year. With a record of 9-11 at the time this is written and a bye in the District, the Redskins will move into Regional play. Eight of the 11 losses have been to teams that were state ranked. The season has been highlighted by wins over Class A power Fletcher and rival Waurika which was ranked 9th at the time. Seniors J. D. Walker and James Brown have provided leadership and steady play throughout the year. These two will be missed next year. With four starters and 11 lettermen returning, the future looks bright for the Redskin program.

The 1984-85 Lady Redskins have been one of the most exciting teams in recent years. Up to this point, they have a 15-3 record with a state ranking and are averaging 60 points a game. With seven seniors on the team, they have provided excellent leadership for the underclassmen on the team. These seven girls will be sorely missed next year: 4-year starters Lisa Landrum and Deena Brady, Mindy Bailey and Angel Todd and top reserves, Heather Davis, Mary Rosenbaum, and Jo Ann Davis. Over the past four seasons they have helped compile 65 victories to just 30 losses; 3 District Championships, 1 Grady County Championship, Winner of the Black Diamond Classic, Runner-up in the tough Bulldog Classic two years, and regional finalist on two different occasions.

"This group of young ladies has made us all very proud. Not only have they been great winners but more importantly, they have always showed a tremendous amount of class and character. We are extremely proud of their achievements and they will always be remembered for their great attitudes."

The 1984 version of the Rush Springs Girls Softball team finished with a 6-5 record. Included in the five losses were two defeats at the hands of the Sterling team which finished as a state semi-finalist. The team was led by seniors Lisa Landrum, Deena Brady, Mary Rosenbaum, and Heather Davis. Lisa did most of the pitching and finished 5-2. She also hit .427 and played some shortstop. Deena was our third baseman and leadoff hitter. She hit .322 and stole 13 bases. Mary played catcher and shortstop. Heather was the left-fielder and hit .319 and drove in 12 runs. These were four outstanding young ladies. The rest of the squad was filled out by junior Sonya Sanders, sophomores Janna Brewer, Kim Baker, and Pam DePriest. The freshmen were Sharon Rhynes, Tiffanie Burges, Stephanie Alfred, and Denna Penny.

Kim was a starting outfielder and 2nd baseman who hit .273. Pam was our first baseman. Freshmen made a big impact as Stephanie, Sharon, and Tiffanie all started and did a fine job. All in all it was a good year for the girls softball team.

— Coach Husband

The Redskins baseball team finished with a 8-14 record for the 1983-84 season. The season highpoint came during a seven game winning streak that included a hard fought third place finish in the Bray-Doyle tournament when they came through the losers bracket to finally suffer a one run defeat after playing eleven innings with Cyril, score 6-5, in a game that decided who went to the finals. The Redskins had some fine seniors on the team. They were Dewayne Buzbee, second baseman, Brian Appling, shortstop; James Kemp, rightfielder, Vic Morgan, first baseman; Jay Smelley, leftfielder. Dewayne was named outstanding senior member of the team.

DEENA BRADY
Watermelon Festival Queen

Elected during the Watermelon Queen Contest in June and crowned during the Watermelon Festival in August, Deena enjoyed a very busy summer in which she had the opportunity to represent the community and to promote the Watermelon Festival. She had guest appearances over several TV stations, spoke over the radio, and made a number of personal appearances. Deena is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Brady.

BRAD BRADY & SHERRIE FRICK
Little Mr. & Miss Rush Springs

Selected at the annual Watermelon Festival in August, the pair was presented trophies that evening and later acted as crown bearer and flower girl for the football and basketball homecoming ceremonies. They also took part in the Christmas parade. Brad is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Brady, and Sherrie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Frick.

CHRISTA PORTER
Junior Dairy Princess

In June Christa Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Porter, was elected Junior Dairy Princess of Oklahoma. She has represented the dairy organizations in Oklahoma by speaking at different meetings including the State Dairy Meeting. In March she attended a meeting where she met with Governor Nigh.

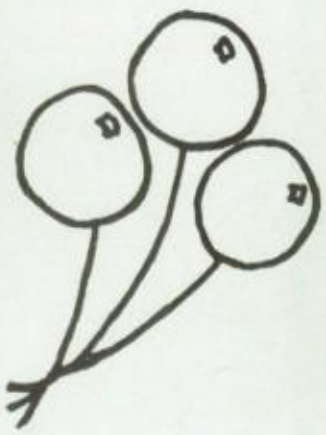
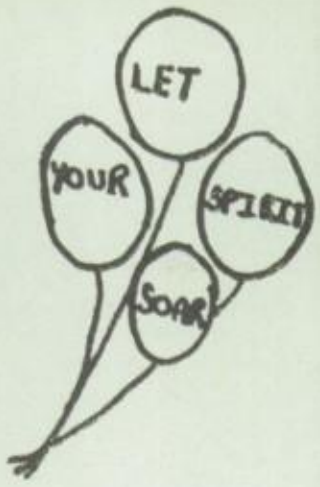
Gee, this is fun.

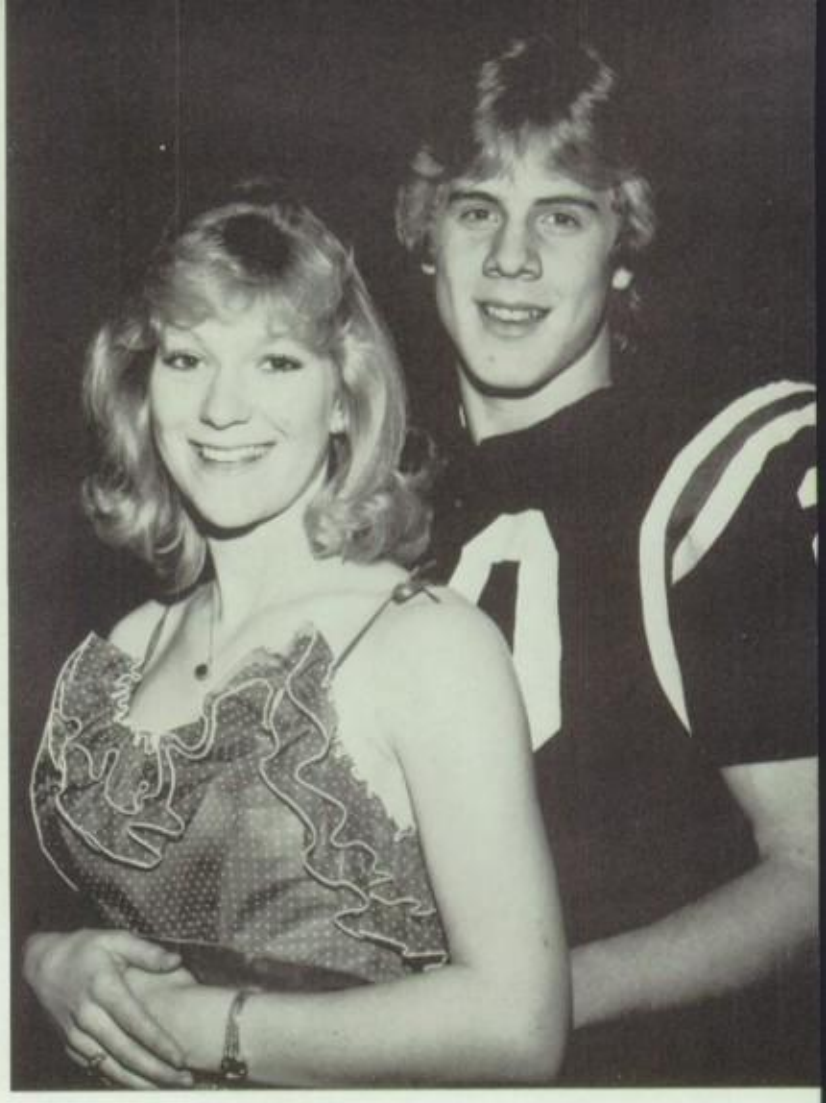
Little Mr. and Miss Rush Springs, Brad Brady and Sherri Frick, were on hand to present the queen with her crown and roses.



I get to hold J.D.'s hand. Oh, goody!



The highlight of the ceremony was the announcement of Lesa Jennings and John Morrow as queen and captain. As Lesa was presented her crown and roses, approximately 130 helium-filled balloons were released into the atmosphere to emphasize the theme, "Let Your Spirits Soar!"



Attendant: Deena Brady, J. D. Walker

Homecoming is sponsored by the cheerleaders and Student Council. This year's theme was "Let Your Spirits Soar!" The field was decorated with an archway entwined with red, white and black silk flowers and ribbons. A paperboard balloon with each candidate's and escort's names also provided background. (Mr. Jennings' CVET class built the props and members of Student Council helped decorate the balloons.)

Just waiting for the exciting news!

The Rush Springs Junior High Homecoming took place October 23 during half time of the game.

Crowning the Homecoming Queen, Terri Garner, was Captain Michael Fulton. The attendants and co-captains were: Pam Townsend and Mike Mobley, freshmen; Sherry Miller, Tammy Rust, Todd Peterman, and Blu Douthit, eighth graders.

The field was decorated with a white archway entwined with greenery and red carnations. Each candidate was presented with a single red rose and a silver football charm necklace. The high school student council sponsored by D'Ann Cooper was responsible for the homecoming ceremonies.

SENIOR HIGH HOMECOMING

Traditional Christmas bells and a bell and flower decorated archway provided the background for the high school basketball homecoming festivities December 7. Names of the candidates and their escorts were placed on bells to complete the Christmas theme.

Following the presentation of the traditional flowers and necklaces to all of the candidates, cheerleader sponsor, Cathy Cloud, announced the selection of Mindy Bailey as the 1985 Homecoming Queen. Chosen as Captain, James Brown presented the queen with her bouquet and crowned her.

Other members of the royal court were seniors, Angel Todd and J. D. Walker; juniors, Chris Filippo and Tommy Foster; and sophomores, Kim Baker and Scott Hayes.

Sherrie Frick and Brad Brady, Little Mr. and Miss Rush Springs, acted as flower girl and crown bearer for the crowning ceremony.

Finally, the junior high teams were able to overcome the obstacles that the weather tried to place in their way and after one cancellation due to snow and ice, the two teams celebrated their homecoming February 11. Sharon Rhynes was crowned Queen by Captain Mike Kelsey in front of a rainbow and heart background. They were attended by Mary Ballard escorted by Mike Fulton and Tammy Rust escorted by Todd Peterman.

Members of the high school student council sponsored by D'Ann Cooper organized the homecoming activities. They were assisted by the junior high cheerleaders Malinda Large, Pam Townsend, Melissa Williams, Linda Latham, and Pam Whitehead who presented the traditional bouquets and necklaces to the girls and held the background for the festivities. Mrs. Cathy Cloud narrated the program.

IN MEMORIAM

MAJOR ROBERT (BOB) LEWIS

In order to preserve the sense of commitment to the improvement of Rush Springs Schools that her husband had while he served as a member and president of the Rush Springs School Board, Mrs. Vivian Lewis of Chickasha presented John Morrow, current Board president, with a check for $2,000 in his memory. Mr. McElroy and Mr. McAdoo were also present to express their appreciation for the gift.

Major Lewis served on the school board for several years before his illness forced his resignation. Lewis Field, home of the Redskins, was named in his honor. Current plans are to use the money to build a press box on the west side bleacher seats.

CRAZEE DAZE

Last spring, Middle School students celebrated the beginning of spring with a CRAZEE DAZE contest which provided fun and enjoyment for everyone. Mike Fulton and Stephanie Alfred reigned over the activities which included all sorts of contests. Students and faculty alike were dressed in crazy fashion. The seventh graders won the coveted trophy with the most triumphs in the various contests.

Go, Michelle!
